From Your Teacher

We are getting ready for summer vacation by visiting Ocean Life.

The shape we will focus on this month is the STAR. Our star collage just might remind you of a starry, starry night.

We will be reading Ocean by Susan Canizares; Rainbow Fish Reads the Treasure Map, and many more. Ask your little one about story-time and feel free to bring in their favorite books for us to read.

We will be reviewing our shapes and colors with flashcards and games. You, too, can make this a routine at home this summer to help make your child's start to 3-year-old class a smooth one.

Huge thanks to the 2-year-old classroom assistants, Miss Lesa & Mrs. Sharon. They kept our class running smoothly in so many ways from making copies and stocking classroom materials to hugs to a teary-eyed toddler. They have been so helpful and the kids LOVE them! Please take a minute to wish them a happy summer as we finish up the school year!

Its hard to believe this is our last month with your little angels. We will miss them so much and look forward to seeing them in the big hall next year!! Thank you so much for allowing us to enjoy them this year. God bless you and your family.

Miss. Kristi

PS—Please do not send your child to school in flip flops or slide on shoes as they can be dangerous on the playground. Sneakers are the very best school shoe! Also, little girls MUST wear shorts under their dresses this spring!!

FYI:

Classes are filling up for next year. Be sure and get your registration in ASAP.

A Director's Note.....

As a school, we spend so much time preparing everything down to the sticker set. We work hard to organize ourselves so that the children are able to learn in the best way possible. We presume these plans go as expected. When they don't, we feel frustrated and irritated.

Simple or complicated, it's never easy when the unexpected happens and things are out of your control. We could make excuses, lay blame, worse—give up; OR we could persevere to do what we are able to get the job done.

I know as hard as the last year has been, it is with 110% certainty God has been here with us through it all. He held us and continually blessed us with the most incredible, uplifting people who blindly felt moved to step in at just the moment it was needed.

There's a quote that reads in part, "At times our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person." Sometimes a simple word of encouragement or an unexpected kindness is all it takes to get us through. That's exactly what our LCP families have done for each one of us. You have delighted in our celebrations and cried with us through our deepest sorrows.

I can't say our troubles will soon be over or that our occasions to rejoice will be few. What I can say is that when they do come, expected or otherwise, you'd be hard-pressed to find a better place to be than among this LCP community.

As we head into summer with happiness and maybe some hesitation, I will close with a fitting quote from Mother Teresa. "Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow has not yet come. We have only today. Let us begin."

Thank you again for blessing us in more ways than words can say.

In His Love,

Anna
